logical Warfare.

d. Recommendations for the Creation of a Wartime Psychological Warfare Organization.

CONCLUSIONS

4. It is concluded that:

a. Psychological Warfare is an important factor in the achievement of national aims and military objectives.

b. The State Department has the primary responsibility for national policy determination in psychological warfare.

c. The Army and the Navy have a direct interest in psychological warfare policy determination, which affects the military security of the United States.

d. CIG has an interest in the intelligence and other aspects of Psychological Warfare.

e. There is need for a permanent sub-committee of SWNCC to serve as a planning body to study continuously the problems of psychological warfare, and to recommend the measures required to achieve coordinated direction of psychological warfare in time of war.

f. This Sub-Committee should be limited in its functions to study, and planning the structure and the functions of a Psychological Warfare organization which should become operative in time of war or earlier as directed by the President.

g. All appropriate agencies of the government should be required to assist in implementation of approved psychological warfare plans.

h. The implementation of psychological warfare plans and directives in a military theater of operations, is the active responsibility of the Theater Commander concerned.
